TO-DAY'S GAMES. Toledo at Wheeling.

"The Knockers' Club" has disbanded, for the season, let us hope. Its death knell was sounded yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, when the rejuvenated and rearranged Wheelings put out the twenty-seventh Toledo batsman, and the game was a victory for Wheeling to the tune of 7 to 5. it was a game worth ten times the orice of admission. Here were the Wheelings, winners of two out of eight games at home, and of one out of four on the late trip, holding down the tailend position in the championship race playing a ragged and disorganized sort of game nearly every day-and all be-cause Mazena and Woodlock were not in the game. But what a change yesterday! The oming of Babb to short field and "Bur" Taylor to second-base seemed to have been just what was necessary to infuse new life and plenty of ginger into the entire aggregation. And the way they played the game against Toledo yesterday afternoon was a sure cure for the blues or most any old allment. Everybody was in the game; there wasn't a weak spot at any point, and nearly every player distinguished himself. But it is unto Durrett the fans are bowing themselves just now, for he was the hero of an exploit yesterday that seldom finds its parallel on the deamond. Stealing from third to the home plate succesfully is a feat that isn't often accomplished, especially when so good a catcher as Arthur, of the Toledos, is guarding base No. 4, but that is just what the big Wheeling leftfelder did in the fifth inning of yesterday's game, and Taylor and Babb who were on second and first respectively, riade the play the more remarkable by each stealing a base simultaneously with Durrett, making it a triple steal. The crowd simply went wild in its enthusiasm, for the run that Durrett scored tied the score and placed Wheeling in the game with the visitors, who had secured a big lead in the opening

All along the line the Wheelings play ed the game right up to the notch. Tayler and Babb each captured an error, but their good work in fielding balls that Heine and Francis and the other wooden men" Wheeling has recently been playing in the infield allowed to us out to the outfield for scratch hits roused the enthusiasm of the crowd me and again. Niles, too, distinguishel himself, stopping and fielding everything that came his way, including one on shot drive from Wiltse's bat in the sixth that had a whole bundle of whiskers attached to It. And the outfeld, too, was there or thereabouts. Lytle had four nice catches and coverd acres of territory.

Wells was in the box for the locals, md all in all he acquitted himself with cedit. The visitors opened up on him myagely in the opening inning, hitting lim for three singles and a double, but ifter that he was a puzzle to the vistors, and not until the ninth did they succeed in bunching hits, when two naterialized into one run that made he game a trifle closer. Wiltse pitched for the Toledos, and he wasn't at all a tifficult proposition. The Nailers found it easy enough to bunch hits off his delvery when they were needed. He has a peculiar "snap-shot" sort of delivery is fangs into his very vitals.

"Should a man think he has consumptica," you ask, "just because his appetie is poor and he is losing flesh and he has a fittle cough and a general feeling of weakness and incapacity?

Nor that doesn't necessarily mean consumption, but it means that the system is being steadily undermined; it is losing force and vitality; it is being steadily undermined; it is losing force and vitality; it is being steadily undermined; it is losing force and vitality; it is being steadily undermined; it is losing force and vitality; it is being steadily undermined; it is losing force and vitality; it is being steadily building prisons that the liver hasn't power to throw off and any day that which is now only a probability may addenly develop into a certainty.

BALE BALL....

ISLAND BASE BALL PARK.

Wheeling vs. Toledo.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Game called at 3:30 o'clock that would appear to be difficult of control and not very deceptive.

In the first inning, Lytle was safe on Beck's error, but he and Dobbs were doubled up on the latter's iniield hit. Niles was the third out. For the visltors, Hartman was an out to Dobbs. Griffin hit to center; Dobbs made a great run for the ball, but barely touched it and it rolled off to right field, and Griffin went on to second. On Beck's two-bagger Griffin scored the first run of the game. Myers singled, sending Beck to third. Gilks sent an easy one to Taylor, but the latter was overanxious for the double and made a mess of the play, Beck scoring and Gilks landing safe at first. On Smith's single, Myers scored run No. 3. McDonough struck out and Arthur retired the side by a grass cutter, Wells to Kihm.

The Nailers got in the game in the second. With Durrett an out, Taylor worked a base on balls and went up a notch on Babb's clean single. Kihm was the second out, and the outlook wasn't bright, but Hunt reached for one of Wiltse's wide ones and met it for a twobagger to left, scoring Taylor and Babb. Hunt wasn't properly coached and was retired at third.

The visitors got another in the fourth. Wiltse worked a base on balls; then Hartman sent a liner to Babb, who ac cepted and shot the sphere over Kihm, retiring Wiltse and completing the double play. With two out, Griffin hit for a base. He started for a steal, and Hunt's throw was right over sec-ond, but neither Babb nor Taylor was there and the ball rolled out into center, Griffin coming around the circuit for the run.

Wheeling went into the lead in the fifth. Lytle was the first out. Dobbs singled. Niles was the second out. Then Durrett and Taylor singled, filling the bases. Babb hit to Griffin, who fumbled, and Dobbs scored, while Babb was safe at first and the bases were still full. Just here occurred that phenomenal steal of the home base by Durrett, while Taylor and Babb moved up a base apiece. Then Kihm went to first on balls and for the third time the bases were full. Hunt's timely single scored Taylor and Babb. This made four runs that Hunt had sent in by his opportune hitting. Wells ended the inning by sending an easy one to Beck, who assisted to Myers.

In the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth the visitors got neither a hit nor a run the locals playing a very fast game and Wells pitching gilt-edged ball. Wheel-ing scored another in the seventh, when Taylor opened up with a single and stole second. Babb was safe on Griffin's second error and Taylor was advanced to third. Kihm was safe on Beck's second error, and Taylor scored. Hunt was an out to Arthur and Wells ended the inning by striking out.

In the eighth, Lytle hit for a clean single, was given second on a wild pitch, went to third on Dobbs' sacrifice and scored on Niles' timely outfield fly to Smith. Durrett hit for a single, but Wiltse's quick throw caught him off first and the inning closed.

The visitors made a game finish in the ninth. Wiltse sent a hot one to Babb, who made a wonderful pick-up and threw his man out at first, clean as a whistle. Hartman and Griffin singled, and the former went to third on a passed ball. Beck hit to Babb, wh retired Griffin at second, but Hartman scored. Myers hit to Babb, too, who assisted to Taylor at second for the out that ended the game. Score:

BASE BALL COMMENT.

Yesterday's great victory by the rejuvenated Wheeling team over the club that has set such a hot pace for the others in the Inter-state race, ought to bring out a big attendance at this afternoon's game, Poole, whom so many of the cranks believe to be Wheeling's best pitcher, will be on the slab to-day and for Toledo Ewing or Cates will pitch.

The victory put everybody in a good humor yesterday afternoon, and every player on the team was heartily encor-ed as he came to the bat. This is as it should be; a little appreciation here will put ginger and ambition into any ball player.

Well, Dayton is with us once again down at the foot of the ladder, and this is better than being alone at the tailend. Two weeks from now the Nailers ought to be in the first division.

Hunt not only caught a good game but his two hits sent in four of Wheel-ing's seven runs. The youngster is a "find."

Durrett has made himself solid with the fans. That steal of the home base was worth going miles to witness.

Beck and Griffin had an off day, but nevertheless they rank among the best infielders in the Inter-state.
